

Building surveyor

Building surveyors advise clients about the design, construction, maintenance and repair of buildings.

Pathways into this job:

- a university course
- an apprenticeship
- a graduate training scheme

£25,000-£70,000

Relevant Subjects:

- Maths
- Geography
- Physics
- Engineering

3.5% Job Growth

Predicted by 2029

Architect

Architects design new buildings and the spaces around them, and restore and conserve existing buildings.

Pathways into this job:

- a university course
- an apprenticeship
- working towards this role

£31,000-£58,000

Relevant Subjects:

- Maths
- Physics
- Art & Design

3.5% Job Growth

Predicted by 2029

Building services engineer

Building services engineers design, fit and maintain the heating, lighting and power systems in offices, hospitals and shopping centres.

Pathways into this job:

- a university course
- a college course
- an apprenticeship
- applying directly

£28,000-£51,000

Relevant Subjects:

- Maths
- Physics
- Engineering

3.2% Job Growth

Predicted by 2029

Civil engineer

Civil engineers design and manage construction projects, such as buildings, bridges, flood defences and transport links.

Pathways into this job:

- a university course
- a college course
- an apprenticeship

£29,000-£63,000

Relevant Subjects:

- Maths
- Physics
- Engineering

3.2% Job Growth

Predicted by 2029

Environmental consultant

Environmental consultants advise on sustainability, including waste management, recycling, flood risk and the effects of climate change.

Pathways into this job:

- a university course
- an apprenticeship

£25,000-£50,000

Relevant Subjects:

- Biology
- Chemistry
- Geography

3.2% Job Growth

Predicted by 2029

Planning and development surveyor

Planning and development surveyors assess proposed construction, transport and environmental schemes in towns and cities.

Pathways into this job:

- a university course
- a college course
- an apprenticeship
- a graduate training scheme

£27,000-£55,000

Relevant Subjects:

- Business Studies
- Economics
- Construction

3.5% Job Growth

Predicted by 2029

Town planner

Town planners help shape the way towns and cities develop, and balance the demands on land with the needs of the community.

Pathways into this job:

- a university course
- an apprenticeship
- working towards this role

£26,000-£45,000

Relevant Subjects:

- Geography
- Design
- Construction

3.5% Job Growth

Predicted by 2029

Building control officer

Building control officers make sure existing buildings and new developments meet regulations, and are safe for the people who live and work in them.

Pathways into this job:

- a university course
- a college course
- an apprenticeship

£26,000-£65,000

Relevant Subjects:

- Maths
- Physics
- Construction

1.3% Job Growth

Predicted by 2029

Domestic energy assessor

Domestic energy assessors (DEAs) work out the energy efficiency of domestic buildings like houses and flats.

Pathways into this job:

- a specialist course run by private training organisations.

£18,000-£35,000

Relevant Subjects:

- Maths
- Physics
- Construction

1.3% Job Growth

Predicted by 2029

Electrical engineering technician

Electrical engineering technicians install, repair and maintain electrical equipment, systems and controls.

Pathways into this job:

- a university course
- a college course
- an apprenticeship
- applying directly

£24,000-£48,000

Relevant Subjects:

- Maths
- Physics
- Construction

2.1% Job Growth

Predicted by 2029

